Note continued :—

The orders of the late Dewan were issued. According to it Krishnaiya appears to have been enjoying the allowance till the end of April 1906. In May 1906 he seems to have left Benares on a pilgrimage to Rameswaram and returned to Benares on the 3d Dec. 1906. The allowance paid to him from the Chatram having been utilized otherwise, it was refused to him by the agent at Benares and in regard to the continuance of the same, he was asked to obtain fresh orders. Krishnaiya in his letter to this Office reports the foregoing facts & prays that orders may be issued to the all ce already sanctioned being continued to him.

The allowance sanctioned was for the maintenance of Krishniah and his wife. The Manager of the Chattram informed me that Krishniah did not take his wife to Benares but that it was some other woman whom he took there and complained that the allowance was being misused. Krishnia however continued to receive the allowance till May 1906 when he left Benares. He came down some time back and requested the continuance of the allowance to him. Under the circumstances brought to notice, I informed him that it was not possible any longer to give the allowance to him. He has not been receiving the allowance since May 1906 and I think it need not now be revived. He may be informed accordingly.

He is a native of Chittoor and enjoyed the handsome allowance of Rs 4 a month for about 2 years. I think that is sufficient—

May certainly be discontinued. But as this was an order passed by the late Dewan, please obtain the approval of the Dewan.

Krishniah applied on the 25th Feb 1907 for a renewal of the privilege. Apparently no action was taken till I enquired on another file regarding the circs of this branch.

Submitted to His Highness.

In March 1904 one G. Krishniah of Boothookote in the Kolar District, who had latterly settled down in Chittoor of the North Arcot District, Madras Presidency, represented that, as he had suffered many reverses in his family, he desired to spend the remaining days of his life in piety and devotion on the banks of the Ganges in Benares, and requested that, in order to enable him to do so, he might be given a monthly allowance of Rs.15 or free rations for himself and his wife. Thereupon, under the orders of the late Dewan Sir P.N. Krishna Murti, it was directed in June 1904, that so long as they lived in Benares, ~~the~~ Krishnaiya and his wife ~~couple~~ might be fed daily in the Mysore Government Chattram at the place or if they wished to cook their food in the Chattram they might be given enough rations for the purpose.

Krishniah enjoyed the allowance till the end of April 1906, when he left Benares on a pilgrimage to Rameswaram. He returned to Benares on the 3rd December 1906, but the Manager of the Chattram refused to grant him the allowance either for the period of his absence from Benares or for the period subsequent to his return to the place. He therefore submitted a petition in March 1907, praying that orders might be issued for the continuance of the allowance already sanctioned to him.

The Mazrai Secretary states that he was informed by the Manager of the Chattram that the woman whom Krishniah took with him to Benares was not his wife, and that the allowance sanctioned for the main-of Krishniah and his wife was being misused. Under these circumstances the Muzrai Secretary thinks that the allowance which has been discontinued since May 1906, need not now be revived. The Second Councillo also considers that the allowance may be discontinue

I agree with the Second Councillor. As, however, this involves the cancellation of an order passed by the late Dewan, I submit the case for the orders of His highness.
